

SINCE 2006, 62 SOUTH DAKOTA TEENS WERE KILLED IN ALCOHOL-RELATED MOTOR VEHICLE CRASHES

In that same time, 815 South Dakota teens were injured in alcohol-related motor vehicle crashes. Why risk your child's life? Have the conversation with your kids—and do it today.

Learn what to say. Visit SafeSouthDakota.com.

A young woman with long, wavy red hair and a friendly smile is shown from the chest up. She is wearing a dark blue zip-up hoodie. She is holding a white stick that supports a red speech bubble sign. In the background, there is a large, light green speech bubble shape with a white outline.

PARENTS MATTER

HAVE THE TALK

A message from the South Dakota
Department of Public Safety and
Prairie View Prevention Services